READ ALOUD TO RESPONDENT:

Hello, my name is _____, and I work for the _____ study. Thank you for agreeing to talk with me today. This interview usually takes a little over an hour to complete. I'm going to read you a set of questions exactly as they are worded so that each person is asked the same thing. I will need to keep things moving along, so I hope that I don't sound rude if I tell you we need to move on to the next question. I will be asking primarily about your personal and family background, your friends, your criminal and legal involvement, and your drug use history. All of your answers will be kept confidential and will in no way affect your legal status, or any services or money you may receive. Many of my questions will refer to the first 3 months after your release or "in the last 30 days." I'll try to be clear, but please ask me if you are not sure about the time period involved.

It is very important that you be open and honest. Some questions may be sensitive or embarrassing to you, but they are necessary to evaluate the intervention.

Do you have any questions before we start?
