

Save the date!

International Conference Series
to Promote Global Health

2015 International Conference on Global Health: Prevention and Treatment of Substance Use Disorders and HIV

April 22 - 24, 2015 • Hangzhou, China

The UCLA Center for Advancing Longitudinal Drug Abuse Research (CALDAR), in collaboration with the Asian & Pacific Islander Addiction Science Network, is pleased to announce the second meeting of Conference Series to Promote Global Health, sponsored by the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

Conference theme: prevention and treatment of substance use disorders and HIV, focusing on Asian countries and Pacific Islands.

The 2015 conference is organized in partnership with The First Affiliated Hospital and State Key Laboratory for Diagnosis and Treatment of Infectious Diseases, Zhejiang University.

Conference Goals: (1) share research findings in the treatment and prevention of substance use disorders and HIV infection, (2) stimulate international collaborations, particularly between the US and Asia/Pacific Island Region, and (3) inform cultural aspects of treatment and prevention of substance use disorders and HIV, in order to promote global health.

Targeted audience: researchers, clinicians, treatment providers & policymakers

Invited Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Nora Volkow

Director, National Institute on Drug Abuse
National Institutes of Health, USA

Dr. David Ho

Scientific Director, CEO
Aaron Diamond AIDS Research Center
New York, NY, USA

Dr. Lanjuan Li

Director, State Key Laboratory for Diagnosis and Treatment of Infectious Diseases,
Zhejiang University, China

Other Invited Speakers: Leaders in the field from across the Asia/Pacific Island Region as well as scientist collaborators from institutions around the world.

Conference website: Coming soon with information on conference program, registration, abstract submission (for conference special journal issue, the poster session, and travel awards), and a list of sponsors.

Contacts:

- Yih-Ing Hser, Ph.D. (via rosspineda@ucla.edu) regarding event program
- Miss Wenji Yuan (ywj8604@163.com) regarding travel and event logistics