GET NALOXONE NOW!

Learn how to respond to an overdose—associated emergency.

Get Naloxone Now is a free online resource developed and offered by National Development and Research Institutes, Inc. (NDRI) to train people to respond effectively to an opioid-associated overdose emergency. Get Naloxone Now advocates for widespread access to overdose education and training in how to administer naloxone, the life-saving antidote for opioid-associated overdose.

Find out how you can contribute to reducing overdose deaths by accessing the online training modules here: <https://www.getnaloxonenow.org/signup.aspx>

Get Naloxone Now offers two online training programs:

Bystander Training for friends, family, coworkers and others of someone at risk of opioid overdose and

First Responder training for police officers, firefighters and other healthcare providers who may use naloxone in an emergency situation.
